 7. Detailed Report on the Activity:

Workshop on the POCSO Act: A one-day workshop on the POCSO Act-2012 was conducted today at K.T.S. Government Degree College. The resource persons for the workshop were the Rayadurgam Town Circle Inspector and advocate Ramya Sree. Inaugurating the program, the college principal, Dr. S. Sreenivasulu, addressed the gathering, stating that in the context of numerous atrocities such as sexual harassment, assaults, and murders against girls, the government has enacted several laws to provide protection to girls. He said that the POCSO Act of 2012 is one such law, and this program was organized with the intention of creating awareness among the college girls about this act. He urged the college students to understand these issues well and become more aware.

Circle Inspector Jaya Naik, addressing the students, provided awareness about the POCSO Act. He explained that according to this law, enacted in 2012, sexual assault, harassment, and causing injury to women and girls are crimes, and even a husband committing such acts against his wife's will is a crime. He advised girls not to give any opportunities to boys, as giving them opportunities can lead to dangerous situations, and they should be careful in this regard.

Another resource person, advocate Ramya Sree, spoke about the POCSO Act, mentioning that although sections of the Indian Penal Code existed before this act, and many laws were in place before its enactment. Despite atrocities being committed against girls, the percentage of girls who report these incidents to the outside world is very low. Therefore, the Indian government enacted the POCSO Act specifically for the protection of girls. This is a strong law for the protection of girls. It is necessary to raise awareness about this law, understand what kinds of atrocities committed by men are punishable under this law, and become more informed.

In this program, SI Suresh explained the law very well, and ICDS supervisors Nagaratna and Jyothilakshmi explained about child marriages and how girls should be careful.
